

I. Chap. 1: Section Subject. A. Sub-Subject. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Detail.</li> <li>2. Detail.</li> <li>3. Detail.</li> </ol> B. Sub-Subject. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Detail.</li> <li>2. Detail.</li> <li>3. Detail.</li> </ol> II. Chap. 1: Section Subject. A. Sub-Subject. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Detail</li> <li>2. Detail.</li> <li>3. Detail.</li> </ol> I. Chap. 2: Section Subject. A. Sub-Subject. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Detail</li> <li>2. Detail.</li> <li>3. Detail</li> </ol>	NOTE OUTLINE: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The old fashion way to outline reading.</li> <li>• Make sure to start a new chapter at Roman numeral one (I).</li> <li>• Roman numerals represent the actual section.</li> <li>• At least three details, should be the most important detail to you, do not pull out random facts.</li> <li>• You do not need to outline the “The Story Begins” or ‘The Story Continues” Sub-Subjects in each section.</li> </ul>
---	---

